To the Principal:

The above named student has applied for admission to The Heritage School. To help us in our admissions process, we require that a principal's evaluation of the student be submitted before the file can be given to the Admissions Committee for consideration. Your help in this process is greatly appreciated; however, if there is any question on this form that you are uncomfortable answering, please feel free to leave that question blank. All information on this form will be kept strictly confidential and will not be shared with parents, students, or guardians. This evaluation is used only in our admissions process and will not be made part of the student's permanent record.

The Heritage School's program is designed to serve students of AVERAGE or ABOVE AVERAGE academic ability who are willing and able to do good work. Our goal is to provide our students with the tools with which to assume their place in a new generation of American leaders.
